PROLOGUE

"Mom come on we do not have all day. We have to go see the king say a speech in the play!" The Thomas said "Hold on there are a lot of horses everywhere." Malea said When they got there the king was talking about how the guards would check our house to see if the criminal that was going to kill the queen was here in the village. The criminal was named as Alina the hunter. After they checked all the houses we left to go see alina in our secret hide out. Nobody knew we were friends with alina, but we still had to be careful because the guards were everywhere you went. Alina was secret nobody could find out where and why she was here
